

Awesome Assistant Manager

Are You a Clever Duck? Take a gander at this post...

Accent Inns is searching for an Assistant Manager to join our flock of totally unique and fun-loving individuals in Richmond, Vancouver Airport. Working at an Accent Inns is different than working anywhere else, and that is a really good thing. We don't just say that. We live it. Being a family-owned business, we treat our staff like one of our own. We offer amazing benefits, a variety of incredible work perks you won't expect and we always have each other's backs. Working here is really all it's quacked up to be, and our team loves what they do. Plus, we have eight hotels across BC and we're growing.

If you're good at having fun at work, injecting humour to your job and bringing a can-do, flexible attitude, then you'll be a feather in our cap!

Key Responsibilities

- Our Assistant Managers act on behalf of their General Manager (GM) and assist in managing every aspect of the comfort, safety, security, and satisfaction of Inn's guests and the efficient operation of the Inn.
- They support the achievement of revenue targets and help manage controllable expenses.
- They are part of all Inn operations, and with their GM, they hire, train, lead, develop, coach, manage and direct an engaged team who achieve the highest level of customer service and satisfaction, and who contribute to a respectful and welcoming workplace.
- They are the enthusiastic leaders and supporters of programs like our 3 Green Key program.
- Our Assistant Managers have the leadership and skills to be successful in supporting the management of complex hotel operations, and inspire and coach their employees to their full potential. They implement and model all our policies, standards, and regulations.
- Our Assistant Managers are well-respected, contributing members of their workplace, and really care about our guests and each other. They are leaders of our Inn team; they leave positive, lasting impressions with our guests, and are a big part of what makes Accent Inns one of the best places to work in B.C.

Role Requirements

- Degree or diploma in Business, Hotel Management, Tourism, Hospitality, and a minimum of 3 years of demonstrated success in Hotel Operations, or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Leadership, integrity, and effective coaching skills;
- Demonstrated success building and motivating a team, and creating and maintaining a respectful and productive work environment.

Don't duck out of this great opportunity to join our Accent Inns family! If this sounds like you, APPLY NOW!